

Fatima Maldonado

Teaching since:	2014
Courses taught at Musica:	Private Piano
Teaching Location:	SW
Music Qualifications:	Grade 9 (Piano) Juan Manuel Olivares Conservatory (Venezuela) BArts(Music) University of Calgary

Summary and other accomplishments:

Fatima Maldonado is a Venezuelan pianist, she started her study of music in the Juan Manuel Olivares Music Conservatory when she was 7 years old. She was enrolled in the Music Theory and Technical skills program with the academy and took additional music training such as solfege, music history, choral practice and composition. Throughout her career she played pieces of recognized composers like Mozart, Beethoven, Schumann, Tchaikovsky, Clementi and Bach in well-known theaters in Venezuela. In addition, she performed multiple times with orchestras being the principal pianist.

Fatima started her teaching career in 2014 and have taught students as young as 4 years old. She is currently furthering her music studies at the University of Calgary. Her goal is to serve as inspiration for young pianists and ultimately hopes to enrich the world through music.