

Kayla Nguyen

Teaching since:	2016
Courses taught at Musica Academy:	Private Piano and Yamaha Group Classes
Location:	NW and SW
Music Qualifications:	Grade 10 (Royal Conservatory of Music) Yamaha Group Certified Teacher

Summary and Other Accomplishments

Kayla is currently a student at the University of Calgary, pursuing a Bachelor of Education. She has always had a passion for being with children. Therefore, her favorite time of the year is the summer where she usually is teaching at summer camps!

Kayla began her piano studies at the age of eight. She has achieved First Class Honors with Distinction throughout her Royal Conservatory of Music theory and piano examinations. Kayla has performed at many concerts around Calgary and other cities with her school band. She was selected to play for the Calgary honor band as a section leader and teacher. Kayla is currently a pianist at a Vietnamese Church in Calgary. Thus, she has earned a considerable amount of experience in accompanying and improvising. Kayla has competed at the Kiwanis/Calgary Performing Arts Festival and won 2nd place twice in 2013 and 2014. She is now pursuing a Bachelor in French and minor in Music and will pursue an after-degree in Education at U of C.

She demonstrates strong leadership skills through hosting many events, including various concerts. Kayla is currently completing her Grade 10 Royal Conservatory of Music and pursuing an ARCT diploma in Piano Performance. Kayla has a strong passion for music, especially in teaching piano. She is looking forward to joining Musica Academy's teaching faculty.