Summary and Other Accomplishments

Kevin is an accomplished pianist, chamber musician, and teacher in the Greater Vancouver area. Kevin received his Associate of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto (ARCT) at the age of 16 and began to develop an appreciation for the art of teaching. Kevin started his undergraduate studies, majoring in piano performance at the University of British Columbia with Dr. Henri-Paul Sicsic. He was a provincial and national finalist for the Canadian Music Competition on numerous occasions and received the 3rd prize at the 2002 Pacific International Piano Competition. Kevin continued onto the Master's Degree program in piano performance under the tutelage of Dr. Sicsic. He graduated with his Master's Degree in piano performance from UBC in 2006

Since 2011, Kevin has maintained his private studio for piano teaching. He continues to give solo and chamber recitals and has been Music Minister and Choir Director at St. Catherines Anglican Church. Kevin teaches music theory including advanced music harmony, analysis, counterpoint, and history. Additionally, Kevin uses modified teaching programs and techniques to teach piano to children with special needs.
