

Rachel Peacock

Teaching since:

Courses taught at Musica Academy:

Private Piano and Yamaha Group Classes

Location:

NW and SW

Music Qualifications:

Masters of Arts (Composition) – York
University

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Music (Honours
Summa Cum Laude) – York University

Summary and Other Accomplishments

Rachel has obtained her Masters of Arts in Composition from York University, as well as her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Music (Honours Summa Cum Laude) - York University. She is a fellow of the Rosebud School of the Arts (Dramatic Arts) and has obtained her Certificate in Early Childhood Education from Red Deer College.

Rachel has performed as a lever harpist and flutist in Canada and the USA. She is the winner of the 2016 York University Concerto Competition for her performance on harp. She is passionate about composing new works for the instrument.

Rachel has taught piano, flute, harp and music theory and loves sharing music with others. Rachel has studied harp in Ireland with Janet Harbison and Gráinne Hambly and in Canada with Sharlene Wallace. Rachel has worked as a composer, musician, musical director, and sound designer for numerous theatre companies including, The Canadian Badlands Passion Play, Rosebud Theatre, Pacific Theatre, Swallow-A-Bicycle Theatre, and Rosebud School of the Arts.