

Shahrzad (Sherry) Ebnejalal

Teaching Since	2002
Courses Taught at Musica Academy	Private Piano
Teaching Locations	SW/NW
Music Qualifications	Pursuing RCM 10

Summary and other Accomplishments

Sherry began her formal classical piano training at the age of 12 in Iran, although being born into a musical family. She learned music through private lessons with reputable musicians in her home country. In addition to classical piano pieces, Sherry is also experienced in Persian traditional music pieces.

After Sherry achieved her Master degree in Engineering, while continuing studying music, she started her first teaching experience in a Tehran studio, teaching both private and group lessons for children at all ages. Sherry has inspired numerous students over her successful teaching years Sherry have taught piano in Iran and Dubai.

After moving to Canada, Sherry continued her music studies at Royal Conservatory of Music and continued her teaching career in Toronto and Calgary. Sherry always encourages her students to perform, to strengthen their self- confidence.

Sherry regularly volunteers as an accompanist for Choir students in Calgary schools. Music has always been her passion. Sherry strongly believes learning and playing music is a very joyful activity and she will do whatever it takes to make music attractive for anyone!