Summary & Other Accomplishments

Jill O'Connell has performed and studied music from the age of 7 years old. Beginning with piano and voice lessons, she developed a passion for music and the performing arts.

Jill is currently completing her Bachelor of Music in Voice at the University of Calgary. She has received her training from well-renowned voice instructors in Calgary, through one-on-one and group settings. Jill has performed in numerous productions with companies including the Young Canadians, Storybook Theatre, Front Row Centre, Edje Dance Performance, Untapped School of Dance and Occasional Notes. Jill has taken part in many competitions such as the Stampede Talent Search, Calgary's Got Talent and Canadas Got Talent. She performs regularly at corporate events and has recently started to record backup vocals for upcoming artists.

She looks forward to sharing her knowledge and helping to shape students' talents that share the same passion for music and performing.
