Summary and Other Accomplishments

Mariah is an enthusiastic musician who started playing piano at the age of five. She has since achieved her Grade 10 with the Royal Conservatory of Music and her Grade 5 Practical with Yamaha. She has played extensively in church which has given her the ability to easily play off of chord charts and lead sheets. She also plays the euphonium in the Salvation Army brass band.

Mariah is a motivated piano teacher with more than 9 years of teaching experience. She has taught students of all ages and strives to inspire students by providing fun and enjoyable lessons. She also enjoys encouraging creativity through improvisation, harmonization, and composition depending on students' interests. Mariah joined Musica Academy in September 2016 to teach both group and private piano lessons.
